Study Abroad Opportunities

Office of Study Abroad

Our goal is to provide immersive opportunities for students to engage in off-campus study programs that complement and connect with the academic offerings of the College. We endeavor to make international education a possibility for all students, contributing to their development of global citizenship and maturity, and to provide continual guidance along the way. We further increase the internationalization of the campus community by nurturing a portfolio of student exchange partnerships which bring international students to W&J.

We encourage students pursuing all majors, as well as international students, to consider incorporating off-campus study into their academic plans.
