

Schedule Your Advising Appointment

Ready to get your academic adventure underway? Great! We are here to help.

Sara Kochuba, Director of Study Abroad

Every student should have their first advising appointment with Sara. She can advise on all programs and will help to point you in the right direction for choosing the program that is the best fit for you. Choose "Initial Advising Appointment" when scheduling your first appointment.

If you select a program in Africa or the Middle East, Europe, Latin America or North America, Sara will be your advisor from start to finish.

Jen Gentzel, Assistant Director of International Programs

If you choose to study abroad in Australia or Asia, Jen will become your advisor after your initial advising meeting.

Jen can also answer general study abroad questions, or inquiries about scholarships, etc.
